ABOUT THE CITY.

United States Marshal Furay was in town yesterday on business for the government.

The sale of seats for "The Ivy Leaf" will open this morning at the Smith Drug company's store.

Alderman Barovich is about to erect a business house on the corner of Chestnut and Third streets.

Fred Single was found lying in front of the Tuttle store yesterday dead drunk. He was arrested.

Paul Hoppe was arrested Saturday night by Chief of Police Fagan for disciplining Nellie Brown with undue severity.

A large number of gentlemen went up and down the creek yesterday and deposited the stream to the extent of four or five members of the flimsy tribe.

People at the Montana last night were handsomely entertained with opera selections artistically performed upon a variety of instruments by Professors Pawderick and von Bulow.

Robert Greig's back, which was painfully injured as the result of a violent disagreement between Mr. Greig's foot and a banana peel, is slowly improving. As much cannot be said for the banana peel.

Under the auspices of the Deer Lodge County Trades and Labor Assembly, Ralph Beaumont will deliver a free lecture at Evans opera house to-night on "Labor, the Great Producer of Wealth, in Its Relation to Capital: Silver as a Standard Medium of Exchange; Free Coinage of Silver and Gold; the Chinese Question; Capitalistic Combinations; Labor Organizations," and the like.

The entertainment to take place Friday evening, May 20, at Evans opera house, will be a grand affair. All who will take part are rehearsing each evening to perfect themselves. Mike Corcoran as the villain in "The Electric Rod Agents," and John Le Mous in his specialties, will be well worth seeing. There will be no rehearsal to-night on account of a lecture, but to-morrow night at 8 o'clock one will be held.

In relation to the item which appeared in yesterday's STANDARD in reference to the hostilities between the photographers' camps, Mr. Comfort says he discharged Mr. Doland the day before the battle. He says that the occasion of his visit to Mr. Hawes' gallery was to collect from one of Mr. Hawes' employees a loan of one dollar. He also says that he thinks his "retouched" eye a small matter compared to a broken thumb which Mr. Doland sustained in the encounter.

The fiery steeds attached to Gray & Mallory's milk wagon took fright yesterday morning and ran down Cedar street, chased into the alley between Front and First streets, and finally brought up with great violence at the corner of Front and Oak streets, where they lay down with the wagon and such of the milk cans as had not been distributed along the route on top of them. A young boy narrowly escaped being run over. The excitement and enthusiasm of the populace along the line of march was intense.

The new hose company which was organized a few days ago, met at the fire hall Saturday evening and elected these officers: Foreman, A. C. Bihms; assistant foreman, H. H. English; secretary, James Gosdard; treasurer, W. S. Hawes; president, Wm. Bonnellson; vice-president, John Berningham. The company is named Anaconda Hose Company No. 1. The company is a credit to the city for it is composed of good men who will make a fine record for themselves at the next tournament at Butte. Several 12-second men are among them.

At the corner of First and Main every evening a free trial of Cap Nulo, the Indian blood medicine. If it does not help you, you need not buy it.

Mrs. Maybee, the dressmaker, guarantees all her work. Call on her at 117 Cedar street, if you want a garment that will fit you.

Wanted—Two girls: one to cook, one to take care of children and do second work. Apply to Mrs. Tuttle, Montana hotel.

Purify your blood now with Oregon Blood Purifier, the great health restorer.

Wanted—Girl apprentice. Apply to Mrs. Maybee, 117 Cedar street.

HELENA'S GREAT INDUSTRIES.

In Time Candy Will be Manufactured in Addition to Crackers.

E. V. Riley, representing the American Biscuit Manufacturing company, was in town last evening. He will push the erection of the four-story brick building and promises that in 30 days Helena will have the first biscuit factory built by his company west of St. Paul. The American Biscuit Manufacturing company is incorporated under the laws of the state of Illinois with a capital of $8,000,000. The factory at Helena will be a 12-span oven and will consume in manufacturing 150 barrels of flour per day. Minneapolis flour will be used in the commencement, but Mr. Riley says as early as possible he will use Montana flour. The factory will employ about 70 hands, and as only the foremen or heads of departments will be imported, this industry will give employment to a number of Helena young men and girls. The building will be erected so that at any time it can be extended. After a short time the company will also manufacture candy. The factory will make over 100 different brands of biscuits.

"The Ivy Leaf." The San Antonio, Texas, Light says of W. H. Power's "Ivy Leaf" company, which is to be seen in Anaconda for the first time Thursday, May 19: "The critic hesitates, not because he is afraid to touch up the rough parts and not give it to them hard enough, as he is sorry to say has been his dilemma with several dramatic patchwork companies that have appeared at the opera house this season, but because he cannot say too much in praise of such a refreshing change. The author of 'Ivy Leaf' is to be congratulated on the beauty of this little bit of natural Irish life, which comes before one as though he were himself one of the figures in the scenes being enacted. The scenery is a great adjunct to this play. The company carries the most beautiful and complete set of any on the road. But the play does not depend on its settings. It is a beautiful idyl of love and romance, nothing coarse, nothing vulgar: all is refinement and even the comedy in which the play abounds is toned down until nothing but the choicest language and wit is heard. The musical feature is prominent and there are several fine vocalists in the company. The quartet received encore after encore last night. The dancing to the music of a genuine bagpipe was heartily appreciated, while the melodramatic plot was so thoroughly well sustained by the company that no room was left for the picking of a flaw. There is not a stick in the company, and if this writer were to particularize, he would have to mention each and every member to do it justice."

The Photographers' War.

The photographers' war rages with unabated fury and is not, it seems, confined to cutting rates. Professor Comfort went up into Professor Hawes' gallery a day or two ago and expressed his opinion of Professor Hawes' assistant, James Doland, both as an artist and as a gentleman. Doland gave the visitor an exhibition of some free hand drawing and touched up one of Professor Comfort's eyes in a most striking manner. Mr. Doland was tried before Judge Rockwell, but was acquitted.

A SEA OF FIRE.

Burning of an Oil Warehouse at Bristol England.

LONDON, May 15.—The Barnett-Harris oil warehouses at Bristol, containing 2,000 barrels of oil, caught fire yesterday and was soon destroyed. The blazing oil ran into the water and the harbor was a veritable sea of fire. Five vessels succumbed to the burning fluid and the hulls and riggings of all were badly damaged. Three barges and a lighter were almost consumed and sank to the bottom of the harbor. The flames communicated to several warehouses and buildings and their contents were seriously damaged by fire and water. The flames spread to the distillery on the opposite side of the river, and the building was also destroyed.

CENSUS OFFICE AFFAIRS.

Poor Management Due to Retaining Inefficient Help.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—In the census office investigation to-day, James A. Collins of the farms, loan and mortgage division of the census office, said he had no personal knowledge of mismanagement, but considered the division could have been conducted to better advantage, but that the fault in his opinion lay in the system. Members of congress were influenced in retaining in office people less efficient than others who were discharged.
